V

illa Tasca is one of private the most splendid historical residences in Palermo that still belongs to the Tasca family who have recently opened their doors to private and exclusive events. Among the infinite colours of the enchanted romantic gardens and the exquisite halls decorated with Eighteenth-century frescoes, you can organise your own custom-designed event. A deeply-rooted tradition of hospitality expressed through the extreme care to meeting your requirements.

Events

Various parts of Villa Tasca can be put at your disposal to host small and large events and selected and professional suppliers will provide you with all you need giving the utmost attention to every detail to realise corporate events, award-winning ceremonies and sumptuous gala evenings.

Scuderia

Elegance and simplicity typical of noble residences are distinctive features of the Villa Tasca Scuderia. It is the perfect venue for award-winning ceremonies, conferences and corporate events. The Scuderia is used in case of bad weather as an alternative to the gardens, hence, all the guests can be together in the same location.
